Officers arrived on scene and observed a black Audi behind the business with subjects sleeping in the vehicle. Officers attempted to wake the occupants, and were advised by Proviso Central Dispatch that the vehicle was reported stolen from Skokie on 10/26/23. At this time the driver woke up and attempted to put the vehicle in drive, as officers were ordering them out. The driver at this time began to pull away, Police ordered the driver to stop, and continued to reverse into the squad. The driver managed to drive away westbound through the alley, and fled westbound onto Cermak Road. Subsequently two passengers were taken into custody and turned over to Westchester Detectives.
